

Candyce D. Cavanagh
Orten Cavanagh & Holmes, LLC, Denver Colorado

Candyce Cavanagh is a founding member and principal of the law firm of Orten Cavanagh & Holmes, LLC. Candyce is a member of the College of Community Association Lawyers, a national group of attorneys recognized for contributions to the development of community association law, and has served on its Nominating Committee. Candyce also serves on the Colorado Legislative Action Committee. Candyce has been a speaker at numerous events on community association issues for the Rocky Mountain and Southern Colorado chapters of the Community Association Institute and has been a speaker at CAI's National Conference and Law Seminar. She also served four years on the State Bar of Colorado's Real Estate Council, served on the Interprofessional Committee as a Bar Association representative, and has been a speaker at several Bar Association continuing education programs. Candyce has donated legal services on a pro-bono basis for several projects sponsored by the Flatirons Habitat for Humanity Chapter.