

Hal Kyles Community Association Attorney

Hal is the firm's primary collections attorney and Collections Department Manager. With his extensive collection and business experience, Hal provides pragmatic collection and litigation solutions and strategies, tailored to serving community associations in collecting assessments.

Prior to joining Orten Cavanagh & Holmes, Hal was the Managing Attorney with a leading creditors' rights law firm in Colorado. He is well versed in Colorado collections law and its strategic application.

Hal has over twenty years of professional experience as a prosecuting and trial attorney, business manager, and military officer. His assertive, team-oriented, leadership style allows him to provide timely and effective counsel, while striving to achieve the most cost-effective and suitable collection result for owner associations.

An avid runner, Hal has lived in Colorado for eighteen years and enjoys an active outdoor lifestyle.

Expertise

- Assessment Collection
- Foreclosure
- Bankruptcy
- Defense of Lawsuits against the Association
- Litigation
- Arbitration
- Mediation

Professional and Community Involvement

- Community Associations Institute, Member
- Colorado Bar Association
- Boulder County Bar Association
- Boulder Road Runners
- YMCA of Boulder County

Education

- Seattle University School of Law (J.D., 1989)
- University of Washington, Seattle, WA (B.A., 1982)